

FISHING ON THE INTERNET

There are numerous Internet Sites which feature fishing both here in New Zealand and Overseas.

Whether you are looking for a Freshwater Fishing Guide, a Deep Sea Charter, a Recipe for that fish you just caught, Club contacts, Fishing Records, Tides or weather and lots more you are sure to find it "on the net".

Some general information sites are :-

www.nzaca.co.nz This is our own NZACA web site with lots more besides.

NZACA Clubs can have their own input to this site.

www.fishing.net.nz This is a broad site covering much of NZ saltwater and freshwater fishing interests. NZACA have a comprehensive presence on this site and member clubs can have direct access to put their own information thereon. A number of other National organizations are also on this site.

www.nzfisher.co.nz This is the Newsletter published by Derrick Paull, our vice-President and an on-line fishing club.

www.fishnz.co.nz This is the website of the popular fishing magazine the New Zealand Fishing News.

www.fishandgame.org.nz This is the official site of the Government Agency for managing freshwater fisheries and gamebird hunting.

www.fishnhunt.co.nz Freshwater and saltwater fishing information along with gamebird shooting. Regular reports on trout lake conditions etc.

www.troutnewzealand.com Fishing information on seasons, tackle, guiding, accommodation etc.

www.fish-atlas.com This is a user pay site which has heaps of fishing information www.metservice.co.nz/forecasts/map_recreational_marine.asp Provides a wide range of free weather information services and tidal reports.

http://home.xtra.co.nz/hosts/ofu/graph/tides.htm Displays tides at various locations in graph form www.calculator.com/moon_phases/phasesnow.php This gives moon phases for entered dates.

There are of course many other sites and new ones are being formed all the time. Many sites have links to others.
